EVEN CHIFFON GROWS ATHLETIC

(By Betty Brown.)
Once we should have thought it absurd to combine chiffon and satin and call it a sport skirt, but nowadays, the fortunes of war and fashion have accustomed us to anything—even chiffons mixed with golf and tennis. As a matter of fact, most of the "sport" in these new concoctions is confined to the name. They have their usefulness as decorations for the fair ladies who watch the games from the sidelines. This creation is of a pale green satin with insets of heavy printed chiffon and is worn with a silk jersey sweater coat with fluffy angora trimmings.

ner park, it is urged that participants come early. Although there will be some automobiles, those in charge desire that as many as are able to do so, attend their patriotism by marching. The fourth division will follow immediately the Godmothers' float and the Shriners' band.

CAN'T FIND DANDRUFF

Every bit of dandruff disappears after one or two applications of Dandrin rubbed well into the scalp with the finger tips. Get a small bottle of Dandrin at any drug store for a few cents and save your hair. LIEUT. STINSON WEDS MISS IRENE JOHNSON

Miss Martha Irene Johnson, second daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James E. Johnson, was quietly married Thursday evening to Lieut. Harry M. Stinson, of the Eleventh Infantry, stationed at Fort Oglethorpe. The ceremony was performed at the home of the bride's parents on East Second street. Maj. Stull, chaplain of the Eleventh Infantry, officiated.

The story tellers' department of the Chattanooga Woman's club will meet next week with Mrs. Boyd Hargraves at her home on Missionary ridge.

LEONARD O'BRIEN NUPTIALS SOLEMNIZED

Army Officer Leads to Altar One of Chattanooga's Most Beautiful Girls.

A marriage of general interest solemnized this morning at 5 o'clock in St. Peter and Paul's church was that of Miss Ellen O'Brien and Capt. John William Leonard, of the Sixth U. S. Infantry. Rev. Father Francis T. Sullivan officiated.

The nuptial music consisted of the "Bridal Chorus" from Lohengrin and the march from "Mid-Summer Night's Dream."

There were no attendants and only members of the bride's immediate family were present.

The bride wore a coat suit of blue serge, with gray accessories. Her flowers were a corsage bouquet of bride's roses and lilies of the valley.

The marriage comes as a distinct surprise to the many friends of the bride and groom, having been hastened by conditions incidental to the movement of the regiment of Capt. Leonard.

The bride is the second daughter of Maj. and Mrs. M. J. O'Brien, of Highland Park, and was educated at Notre Dame academy. For the past several years she has held the place of society editor of the Chattanooga Times, succeeding her sister, Miss Annie O'Brien, now Mrs. Mark J. O'Brien, of New York. She is a young lady of much culture, and beauty of personality.

The groom is a valued member of the faculty of the First district school, Miss Claire O'Brien, identified with the social department of the morning paper, and Miss Emily O'Brien, a student.

Capt. Leonard is a West Point man, coming from Toledo, O. He served under Gen. Pershing in the Mexican campaign. During this campaign he was promoted to first lieutenant. Upon the declaration of war he came with his regiment to Fort Oglethorpe. At the opening of the training camp, Warden McLean, he was detailed as an instructor and served in that capacity until this week, when he was ordered back to his regiment. His promotion to captain took place during the May camp.

Why Spring Brings Out Freckles and Eruptions

The sudden appearance of freckles, slight eruptions or fine lines at this season is attributed by scientists to the "acidic ray," which is unusually active during the spring months. Where the skin is so affected by this influence, if one will procure an ounce of common mercurized wax at any drug store, apply a little of it before retiring, like cold cream, she can easily overcome the trouble. When the wax is washed off next morning, minute flaky skin particles come with it. The entire outer cuticle is removed in this way in a week or two, with all its defects.

No bleach could so effectively remove freckles or blemishes. The new surface is smooth, clear, fresh looking. No pain or inconvenience accompanies this simple treatment. (Adv.)
